2019.29 Matters brought to the Council's attention:

2019.30 Committee Reports

1. Planning

66506 change of use of agricultural building to dwelling – Summermoor Farm
2 Appeals lodged:
1 Bydown Cottage – erection of holiday unit and associated works
Deer Haven – conversion of agricultural building to live/work unit (part retrospective)

2. Finance – Audit information received

3. Community Engagement/Glebe Field

Cllr Skinner reported that SWW lorries have been parking on Liverton Drive. He approached them concerning this parking, and they have now cleared their own access road and are using it.
The Planning Application has been submitted for the whole field. The Orchard/Dog walking area is half way to completion. A councillor grant has been received towards the improvements to the old ammunition hut and the materials for this have been purchased. The committee is considering a grant application for planting mazzard trees in the Orchard.
There is some scrap metal on the field – it was agreed that Cllr Dodd will attend with his trailer to pick this up and take it to SW Metals. Cllr Lane will assist with a fork-lift.
There was a discussion concerning the funds held by Parklands, and it was agreed that it is appropriate that the funds stay with this committee.
